PIAA Re-appoints Officers, Elects New Directors at 2017 Medical Liability Conference

Rockville, MD (May 25, 2017) – PIAA, the leading international association representing the medical and healthcare professional liability (MPL/HPL) insurance community, elected two new directors and re-appointed its slate of officers during the Annual Meeting of Members at the 2017 PIAA Medical Liability Conference in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

The PIAA Board of Directors re-appointed Richard E. Anderson, MD, FACP, Chairman and CEO, The Doctors Company, to serve as its Chair. In addition, Mary-Lou Misrahy, President and Chief Executive Officer, Physicians Insurance a Mutual Company, was re-appointed as Vice Chair and appointed Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee and James Q. Swift, DDS, Chairman, OMS National Insurance Company, was re-appointed as Secretary.

The PIAA membership elected two directors for a first three-year term: John H. Mize, FCAS, MAAA, President and CEO, State Volunteer Mutual Insurance Company and Hartley S. Stern, MD, Executive Director/CEO, Canadian Medical Protective Association.

“I am pleased to welcome our new Directors to the Board,” said PIAA Chair Richard E. Anderson, MD, FACP. “They bring significant expertise to PIAA—and we are excited to have them join the leadership of the Association.”

Gloria H. Everett, President and Chief Executive Officer, the Mutual Risk Retention Group completed a nine-year term on the Board of Directors. Kurt Scott, President and Chief Executive Officer, KaMMCO completed a six-year term on the Board of Directors.

“We truly appreciate the substantial contributions made by Gloria Everett and Kurt Scott,” said Brian K. Atchinson, President and CEO, PIAA. “Their work in support of PIAA, as well as the MPL/HPL community, has been exceptional. We thank them for their commitment and dedication.”
